THE OFFICIAL VOTE COMPLETE

SLIGHTLY CUTS DOWN THE MA-JORITY FIGURES GIVEN IN YES-TERDAY'S PAPER-A PLEASING ELECTION AFTERMATH AT MARTIN'S FERRY YESTERDAY. BLAST FURNACE EMPLOYES GET A RAISE OF TEN PER CENT

The Intelligencer's friends on the Belmont river front were kind enough yesterday to praise the enterprise of this paper in printing the tabulated returns for the entire county with the exception of the one precinct that had not been reported to the election supervisors at St. Clairsville Wednesday night. The official tabulation, with the missing precinct added, slightly outs the majorities in the county. These were announced officially, yesterday afternoon, as fol-

Of Prosperity Coming Realized by the Employes of the Martin's Ferry Blast Furnace, Who got a Raise of Ten Per-Cent Yesterday. When Mark Hanna was in Martin's

Ferry last week, he told of improvement in business throughout the United States and stated that more prosperity would and stated that more prosperity would come, and this statement has already been verified to a certain extent. He promised more work for the workingmen but did not promise a raise of ten per cent in wages, which came yesterday, to the surprise of fifty furnacemen.

The advance in wages occurred at the Martin's Ferry blast furnace and was a surprise to the many men employed there. The raise was not asked for by the employes at this blast furnace and was not expected. Not a single man employed there knew he was to have his wages raised and there was no pomp and ceremony about it or any talk about it for political effect while Mark Hahna was hustling for the senatorship. Hanna did not do it, and did not tell the furnacemen it would be done; none of the politicians knew it and none of the newspapers heard of it before the election, and in fact, no one outside of the officials of the company knew about it until yesterday. The matter was not heralded all of the company knew about it until yes-terday. The matter was not heralded all terday. The matter was not heralded all over the country and the announcement was made quietly. The difference in the amount of good sound money in the yellow envelopes told the story of the increase in wages.

When each man opened his pay envelope he was surprised and pleased to find that the envelope contained ten per cent more money than it did the pay before the election and not a bit of red tape about it. When one man made the discovery he yelled "Hurrah for Mark Hanna! Hooray!" Hooray!"

ma! Hooray!"

The increase of wages affects every man employed at the Martin's Ferry blast furnace, no matter what wages he receives. To a man earning $14$ a week it means one dollar and forty cents additional and so on all the way through.

To say that the fifty men employed at the blast furnace are happy, is putting it midly, and their families are equally as happy. The wife of one furnaceman said last night: "We did not know anything about it and are awful glad, for it's quite a help to us." a help to us.

The rankest demagogue can not say this was done for political effect, for it came finannounced and unasked for, and while it covers the two weeks pay none of the employes knew a thing about it until two days after the recent election, and this is significant. The raise was made on account of the improvement in business, due entirely to the election of McKinley and the new tariff law.

The tin workers recently got a hand-some raise and wages have been raised in other lines, and the pottery workers will shortly receive an increase in their

ELECTION AFTERMATH.

The Wheeling Intelligencer gives the figures of the good tidings in election returns while the Register contents itself to mielead its readers by giving a lot of roosters. The distinction between the man of facts and figures and the cartoonist is apparent. But the people want the facts.—Bellaire Independent.

The Register has a rooster crowing over Mark Hanna's election this morning. It says no matter if he is elected he is deposed. The Register needs the X-rays turned upon its director-general.—Bellaire Independent.

A number of Martin's Ferry Republicans have within the last day or two compilmented the Intelligencer in very high terms for the earnest and efficient support it gave the Belmont Republican ticket this fall, as well as in the past campaigns. Sail one prominent Republicans: "The Republicans of Belmont county owe much to the Intelligencer for the great help it has rendered the parity in this campaign, and I for one, and hankful and I believe all of the Republicans are."

Another said: "Your paper deserves the support of every Republican in Martin's Ferry for the way it supported Mark Hanna and every other man on the ticket. I tell you it was a big help to us. No paper could have done more."

Said another Republican: "I read every word of the Daily Intelligencer report of the Hanna meetings in Martin's Ferry, Bellatre, Aetnaville and Bridgeport, and I was so well pleased that I sent papers to friends by mail."

This is the way one ironworker put it: "Your paper made a noble fight for the Ohio Republicans this fall as well as in other years, and I want to compliment you. I've heard several speak of this. I'm proud of the Intelligencer. It made lots of votes for our party on the river front.

Congressman Lorenzo Danford was at the McLure last night, and he was soon in the midst of the faithful of this side of the river, and they were loud in con-gratulations over the way old Belmont had asserted itself. He was in the best of spirits, and admitted that the majori-ty rolled up for the right side was be-of spirits, and admitted that the majority rolled up for the right side was beyond his calculations.

"We figured on 800," he said, "but 993 it is. And then all our boys didn't come out to vote. The Republicans suffered a loss in Puliney township, due probably to the Popocratic efforts to connect the Beliatre mill trouble with the party in power. Outside of that we did well, and we're more than satisfied."

Concerning the state legislature, Captain Danford remarked that Judge Nash, of the state committee, was a very conservative man, and if he claimed a majority of five on joint ballot, there wouldn't be anything less. On the other hand the Democratic committee made rash claims.

MUSICAL WHEELING.

The Lyrle Ladies of Chicago, under the auspices of the Epworth League, were an attraction that crowded the Opera House last night. The quartette is made up of ladies possessing sweet, clear voices, used effectively in all the styles voices, used effectively in all the styles of music attempted. Every number was thoroughly enjoyed. Honors were even, each member individually, receiving the hearty applause of the audience. Again and again they were recalled.

Miss Gilmore's beautiful mezzo soprano voice was heard only in a short solo in one of the concerted pieces, but was one of the enjoyable features. The solo number sung by Miss Lambert was particularly good, while the numbers by Miss Sprague and Miss Simons were pleasing.

The vocal part was interspersed with The vocal part was interspersed with recttations by Miss Mary Louise Cassidy, who, by the way, is alone an evening's attraction. Everything she rendered was so intelligently pictured that it became for the time a reality, and to enthusiastic demands. Miss Cassidy was compelled to double the number of her contributions to a most pleasing programme.

MR. HANNA TALKS

By Telephone From His Cleveland Home to Wheeling.

HE IS SURE OF HIS ELECTION

AND TELLS HON. N. B. SCOTT THAT HE IS GRATIFIED AT THE OUTCOME-STORIES OF PROB-ABLE REVOLTS UNTRUE-MR. SCOTT SHOWS THAT THE OHIO RESULT IS AN UNPRECEDENT-ED REPUBLICAN VICTORY-BUT THE SECOND TIME IN THIRTY YEARS SHE HAS VOTED TO HAVE TWO REPUBLICANS AT ONCE IN THE SENATE.

National Republican Committeeman N. B. Scott left yesterday afternoon for Colorado Springs and Cripple Creek, Colorado, on a business trip, Mrs. Scott is in Chicago and will join her husband there. Just before leaving the city Mr. Scott had a brief conversation by telephone, with Senator M. A. Hanna, who was in Cleveland. Mr. Hanna confirmed to Mr. Scott the press reports received during the day to the effect that the Ohio legislature would have from five to seven Republican majority on joint ballot. He expressed himself as gratified by the outcome, considering the vicious character of the fight that had been made against the party and him personally, as the party's candi-

Mr. Scott asked Mr. Hanna as to the truth of the published reports that several of the nembers-elect of the legislature would oppose his election to the senate and that the Foraker men would revolt, in violation of the compact entered into, which made Foraker senator, McKinley President and Hanna senator. Mr. Hanna's response came quickly over the telephone wire, in firm tones: "There's not one word of truth in that report. I will be elected. Do not rely on the gossip of the enemy, which is only an attempt to make mischlef. There will be no teators in the camp. All are good Republicans."

Mr. Hanna expressed himself over the 'phone as being grateful to his West Virginia friends for the warm interest they had taken in his contest, and for the deep concern they had felt in behalf of the entire Republican ticket in Ohlo, It was an evidence, he thought, of the general desire to see President McKinley's administration endorsed.

After repeating to the reporter Mr. Hanna's responses, Mr. Scott said that the news from Ohlo showing that Bushnell was re-elected by 27,000 majority and that the legislature would have a majority sufficient to elect a Republican senator, was most gratifying. "When you come to think about it," Mr. Scott asked Mr. Hanna as to the Republican senator, was most gratityins.

"When you come to think about it."
said Mr. Scott, "It is a notable victory for the Republican party, and intelligent Democrats everywhere will so regard it, in splic of the fact that yesterday they were congratulating themselves on the then supposed defeat of Mr. Hanna. In the past thirty years only once previous to this year (in 1895) have the Republicans secured a majority in the legislature to elect a Republican colleague of Senator Sherman.
Mr. Sherman always had a Democratic colleague, and Ohio has not in all that thirty years had two Republican senators at once matil Foraker and Hanna took their seats together on the 4th of last March, notwithstanding the state has all along been overwhelmingly Republican in presidential years.

"This peculiar record of Ohio led the Democrats to hope, and with reason, that this year history would repeat itself. To be consistent with her past record Ohio would have to elect a Democratic legislature this year and give Senator Foraker a Democratic colleague. But she hasn't done so. She has broken her record, and not only has she elected a Republican legislature that will continue Mr. Hanna in the senate, but she has stood by President McKinley's administration by givlogs the handsome off-year plurality of 27,000 for the Republican state tleket.
In view of all this it is a Republican victory ou which the Republicans of the country over may congratulate theselves on.

"The Democratic claim that the small theselves on.

"The Democratic claim that the small majority in the legislature is a virtual repudiation of Mr. Hanna is the veriest.

All have already shown you. repudiation of Mr. Hanna is the veriest nonsense. As I have already shown you, he has secured what no other Republican candidate for the senate has ever secured in the first year following a presidential year, according to Ohio's eccentric habit of the past thirty years, and considering the remarkable and unprecedented campaign of slander and villification simed at him, has scored a signal personal triumph."

STAECKE CONVICTED

Of Involuntary Manslaughter for the Killing of Edward Pearl.

Fred Staceke, of Benwood, charged with the murder of Edward Pearl, was found guilty at Moundsville yesterday of involuntary manslaughter. The jury, which had been out since noon of the previous day, brought in its verdict about 11 o'clock. Following the verdict Staceke's attorneys made a motion for a new trial. The motion will be argued later.

The case began Monday morning, and a new trial. The motions were watched with Interest by Benwood people, and residents of the lower portion of this city. The state's side of the case was conducted by Prosecuting Attornoy Parsons and Messrs. Dovener and Conie. Colonel Arnett and Josiah Sinciair looked after Staccke's interests. The testimony adduced at the trial was in striking contrast to that rendered by the same witnesses at the coroner's inquest.

Pearl was killed at Boggs' run one sunday evening last summer. He with several Benwood young men in a wagon met Stackes party, returning from a pienle, at the crossing. It was claimed that the party in the wagon crowded those on the road. Words followed and a general fight was the result. Pearl was horribly slashed in the abdomen, and died a day or two later. Stacke, who was accused of using the knife, has always borne a good reputation, and his many friends in Benwood were in hopes of his acquittal.

SUED THE PRINCE,

But the Plaintiff Could Get Small Comtort From a Fawning Court

traordinary case heard before the lord mayor's court when a man named Hinds sued the Prince of Wales to recover £69,090 ($300,090) alleged to have been wrongfully paid him by the late under sheriff Croll, who was the liquidator of the United Kingdom Electric Telegraph Company. The plaintiff declares the money belonged to a certain Mr. Allen, of whose estate he was the assignee. Hinds' father claimed the sawin of £150,090 ($750,000) from Lord Suffolk, alleging that the latter had suborned Croll to commit perjury before Lord Bramwell at the trial in 1877, in connection with the liquidation.

Sir George Lewis, in behalf of the Prince of Wales and the Earl of Suffolk, asked that the proceedings be quashed on the ground that the allegations were nothing more than a frivolous and vexatious tissue of nonsense, and he submitted an affidavit to that effect.

The plaintiff then addressed the court, traordinary case heard before the lord

The result of to-day's polling is the victory of the Liberal and Radical candidate, Alderman Duckworth, by a majority of three hundred in a poll of 11,000, over the Unionist and Conservative candidate, William Mitchell. The bimetalist question played a considerable part in the contest. No part of Lancashire is more ardently bimetallist than the southeast. The refusal of the government to take any definite step to meet the proposals of the American and French governments was used against Mr. Mitchell.
